The musical score for "The Sound of Silence" by Simon & Garfunkel is presented in two systems. The first system shows the beginning of the song, starting with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a common time signature (C). The melody is written on a single staff, featuring a series of eighth notes and quarter notes. Below the staff, there are four staves labeled T, A, B, and another unlabeled staff, each containing numerical values representing fret positions for guitar. The second system continues the melody, showing more complex rhythmic patterns and chord structures. The numerical values on the guitar staves correspond to the chords and fret positions used in the original recording.

The image shows a musical score for the song "The Wind" by The Beatles. It features a guitar solo in the key of D major, 4/4 time. The solo is marked with a "20" and a "17" indicating measure numbers. The notation includes a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a 4/4 time signature. The solo consists of a series of eighth and sixteenth notes, with some measures containing multiple beamed notes. Below the main staff, there is a tablature section with four lines labeled T, A, B, and another line. The tablature includes fret numbers (0-7) and a capo position of 2. The solo ends with a double bar line and a repeat sign.
